WOMEN IN eDISCOVERY™ ANNOUNCES NEW REGIONAL DIRECTOR, INTERNATIONAL CHAPTERS

MINNEAPOLIS, MN – July 14, 2021 – Women in eDiscovery, a 501(c)(6) nonprofit organization that brings together women interested in technology related to the legal profession, announced today that Dina Hetherington has been named regional director for international chapters.

Hetherington has been involved with Women in eDiscovery since 2017, when she led the formation of the London Chapter. In 2018 she was appointed the first chapter director for London.

Hetherington is a triple qualified lawyer, having been admitted to the DC and California Bars, the Roll of Solicitors of England and Wales and the Roll of Solicitors of Northern Ireland. She has over 15 years of experience in the eDiscovery industry and has worked for Herbert Smith Freehills, Allen & Overy and JPMorgan & Co. She currently works for Consilio in the UK.

“I am honoured and excited to continue to be a part of WiE as its newly appointed regional director for international chapters,” says Hetherington. “I look forward to working with the international chapters and helping them thrive and spread the ethos of Women in eDiscovery.”

“We are excited to have Dina expand her role at WiE to regional director, international chapters,” says Jackie Rosborough, executive director of Women in eDiscovery. “The level of expertise she brings to this role will help guide new chapters across the globe.”

WiE is looking to continue to expand the leadership team with the following positions:

IT Specialist
Director of Membership
Director of Charities and Special Events
Director of Marketing and Communications
